

ALBERT JOHN EUBANKS

Graniteville, S. C.

"AL"

"Al" probably was by his brothers side when he was first seen here, but his eyes were sparkling and a wide grin was spread over his face. We've often wondered why that smile never faded, "Al".

ROBERT M. FISCHER

Rincon, Ga.

"FISH"

From the thriving metropolis of Rincon, Ga., comes "Fish" who thinks there is nothing on earth like studying forestry. Well, maybe not, "Fish", so we wish you and forestry all that it will take.

JAMES PARKER GAINES

Charlotte, N. C.

"JIMMY"

Now before our minds are side-tracked by some odd object lets just stop and think a minute of our old standby, Jimmy. If ever a good joke or a swell all-round companion was needed this old pal was always around. We give you our thanks and wish you all the luck with your souls.

NELSON A. GARDNER

Naval Base, S. C.

"GUY LUMBAGO"

All that any of us can say about or to "Lumbago" is that our dances here at the institution would not have been quite so enjoyable without him. Thanks a million for using your larynx and pharynx, "Guy Lumbago".

HUGH VENSON GAY

Garfield, Ga.

"Hugh"

For a while we were uncertain as to who would be our smallest Senior this year. The run was between Hugh and a couple others, but now we're inclined to believe that either Hugh has grown all of a sudden in order to really be a Senior or the other contestants have just shut down on him concerning the idea.

RICHARD COURTNEY GILLARD

Honolulu, Hawaii

"ESKIMO"

Never speak of "walking the last mile" without thinking of our little "Eskimo" from Honolulu. Every day after old man winter had turned the cord until brother spring had knocked him over "Eskimo's" lips would utter "Where does all of this cold weather come from?" Oh well, tomorrow is another day.
