

Seated, left to right: Paulson, Risher, L. P., Toomer, Cuevas, R. N., Albrecht.
Standing: Smith, A. E., Cruit, Sineath, Sams, Applegate, Morris, Echols, Mangum, Tate, Lewis, R. C., Mann, B., Hamilton.

THE LITERARY SOCIETY

THE JAMES M. GRIMES LITERARY SOCIETY has made overwhelming progress this year. Under the excellent supervision of Capt. David Cromer, faculty advisor, they have learned much in the literary field.

There are twenty-five picked members from which come its officers who are: President Toomer, Vice President Risher, L. P., Secretary and Treasurer Cuevas, R. N., Critics Paulsen and Albrecht, Censors Cruit and Wilkinson.

On every Monday night the society members participate in public speaking and debates.

This year they entered a contestant in the National Oratorical contest as part of the year's activity.