Cadets at Carlisle undergo a rigid military curriculum. Aside from their daily drill and Sunday Dress Parades, the students are subjected to a maximum amount of military training in regular military science and tactics classes. Here they are taught not only to be a good soldier in war, but also a good citizen in a world of peace. These classes are instructed by the Carlisle P. M. S. & T., Capt. Waddy Thompson.

The Cadet Corps is under strict military discipline and supervision at all times. All school regulations are carried out through the cadet commissioned and non-commissioned officers, as well as the faculty.

Carlisle still operates on the age old honor system, and military courtesy stands traditional.

The student body has received much recognition and praise for their functions as a well-disciplined and well-trained military unit. It is only through the complete co-operation of each individual that this achievement could have been attained.
