

paper for the entire student body, keeping the students in close touch with daily events on the campus, and furnishing them an accurate, unbiased account of cadet activities.

The Bugle is one of the most cohesive units on the campus, and plays a vital role in uniting the student body and cementing relations between the students and the faculty. It is a newspaper published for, and written by the students, with student interest uppermost.

The staff of the Carlisle Bugle sincerely hopes that the student body has enjoyed receiving and reading the newspaper. It has been a great joy and pleasure to publish it.
