

LITERARY SOCIETY

Under the excellent supervision of Capt. M. Carson Sturgeon and Capt. Frank Estes, the James M. Grimes Literary Society went forth into a very successful year. Outstanding progress was made in public speaking, debating, and other literary fields.

The Literary Society is composed of twenty-five chosen members. The officers for this year were: Arthur Albrecht, President; Jimmy Mangum, Vice-President; Charles Sams, Secretary-Treasurer; Leslie Allen, First Critic; and Merwyn Applegate, First Censor.

The Society meets every Saturday night at which time the members participate in various oratorical and other literary activities.

The club has proved to be a great aid in the cultural development of its members as well as extending their knowledge of world literary affairs.
