Under the patient and watchful guidance of Coaches Burnette, Burch, and Estes, the Carlisle Military School grid-iron squad completed their '48-'49 football season with an impressive record of four wins and two losses. The Cadets lost their first encounter, October 1, at the Orangeburg fair-grounds, when with only two weeks of practice they fell before the onslaught of the powerful Orangeburg high school grid machine by a score of 34-0.

The following week the Battling Bishops of Bishop England High School from Charleston, handed the Cadet Cyclones their only other loss by scoring in the first and second quarters to walk off with a 13-0 victory. The inexperienced cadet line couldn't cope with the powerful Bishop England forward wall and the offensive-minded Bishops readily took advantage of this misdemeanor.

The Golden Cyclones tasted victory for the first time on October 22 when they trampled over a game Kershaw High School eleven in a 26-0 romp played in cold rain at the Kershaw Stadium.
