

Honor Council

One of the most reputable organizations on the C. M. S. campus is the Honor Council, which is composed of the Cadet Major, the Captain Adjutant, the Company Commanders, and Captain Thompson, faculty advisor.

This judicial committee governs the decision for punishment of a cadet who has been accused of an offense circumstantially of serious origin. All evidence and witnesses pertaining to the case are brought before the council for their consideration and a verdict is then submitted to the Headmaster for approval.

Since this council possesses unlimited authority in the expediency of these matters, it is essential that the members represented have the qualities of capability and intelligence.
