

Last Will and Testament

JOHNNY AIMAR wills his "hot plate and black coffee" to Jack Stone.

DONALD ALBRECHT leaves his love for Miss I. W. Harper to David Jackson.

DALE ARN leaves his reinforced superstructure to Duckworth, who he is sure can use it.

HENRY BAMBERG wills his cows to Capt. Burch.

LEO BAUER being of unsound mind, wishes to bequeath his abilities to "beat" reports to the unfortunate wretch that replaces him.

EDWIN BEAM wishes to leave to anyone, who next year during mid-term exams will be a bull rat, his deepest sympathy.

MAURICE BELLINGER leaves his place of Pvt. in "A" company to his loving roommate, Del "Daddy" Dorn.

JACK BOATWRIGHT wills to his mother his Carlisle Diploma.

STERNE BOLTE leaves the battalion to Don Duckworth, and wishes him luck with it.

BOBBY BROWN leaves Capt. Burch's paddle to Dicky "Richard" McNeil.

RODNEY BROWN leaves room 169 to Boatwright, F. Y. and Skipper.

DAVE BRYSON leaves to next year's REBEL editor the rest of the "midnight oil."

CRAIG BUCKINGHAM leaves his unsurpassable ways with women to Jimmy Hunter.

JIMMY CLARK leaves his padless clarinet to Bobby Agnew.

"DADDY-O" COBLE leaves to Pete Grinnell his infinite musical ability, with the hope that they'll meet at the top of the "Down Beat All-Star Band" poll.

CLARENCE COLEMAN wills his ability to get special leave to Bob Hicklin.

"CHUCK" CORBIN wills to "Little Crow" his chemistry formulae, with the wish that he may benefit from them.

CHARLES COTHRAN leaves his diploma in the hands of his father.

"MONKEY" DAVIS wills his ring of keys to Ed Steele.

BILL DEPEW leaves an everlasting friendship with Captain Drymon behind.

ALLAN DRIGGERS leaves to David Jackson his ability to always be a "good friend" to the Bamberg girls.

CECIL DURANT leaves his hopes for a better year to the Junior Class.

JOHNNY ELLIOTT by special request of "Mr. Over-Modulation" himself, bequests to John Lowther, his golden voice and unabridged repertoire of Mr. Webster's gems.

LINTON FEATHERSTON leaves his place on the basketball team to "Red" Ramsey.

BILLY FOOTE leaves his great "Louis Armstrong" records to Charlie Fox.

LOUIE GRANTHAM leaves to "Drip" Waldrop his football "T" shirt that he has used for three years.

TEMPLE GRINNELL leaves his shoes, that have walked on North Carolina soil, to Perry Wilson.

"STINKY" GUEST leaves his friendship with Capt. Drymon to "Drip".

HAROLD JOHNSON leaves to Waldrop his ability to conduct parties after taps and his girls.

FRED KNIGHT leaves to Jimmy Hunter his good looks and magnetic charm.

"RED" McCORD leaves the whole state of Texas to Hart.

RICHARD MAGEE wills his ex-sgt. stripes to Don McKain, and also his ability to lend money.

RONALD MAJORS wills his ability to use the talented art of evading Capt. Thompson's drill to Sam Slaughter.

TED MATHESON leaves the office to Ramsey.

LEONARD MELFI wills "C" Company to anyone who is good at changing diapers.

DAVID MORRIS keeps all he owns, and takes it with him.

RUSSELL NOEL leaves his never-before-heard "jokes" to Captain Martin.

HOMER PIATT leaves to Jack Harmon, his love for Bamberg girls.

OSCAR PIPKINS leaves Bamberg's Municipal Airport to Everett Kerr.

JIMMY REID leaves to Richard McNeil, his inevitable misfortune of being the object of all slanderous conversation.

HAROLD RICE leaves his bird hunting ability to George Martin.

"BUBBAH" ROGERS leaves his ability to receive ratings to James Garner.

ALAN ROZON leaves the good luck that he has experienced at Carlisle to Speir Ramsey.

BILL SCHENCK leaves his blindness to his buddy, John Lowther.

CHARLES SHADLE leaves to Jack Harmon his captivating personality.

FRED SIGG leaves to "Buddy" Hollis his brains, and ability to use them.

BURNET SIRES leaves his seat on the basketball bench to Threatt.

HUBERT SMITH leaves his solo trumpet to Pete Grinnell.

GARY SMITH leaves to Wesley Ferns his boxing gloves provided Margie is not in them.

JOHN STEVENS leaves his ability to avoid the bull ring to Clyde Knight.

CARLOS SUAREZ leaves his ability not to get on the bull ring to Menendez.

CHARLES SWINDELL leaves the loudest drum section ever to march down Carlisle Avenue to Perry Wilson.

JIMMY SWINDELL leaves his good looks and his way with women to Denny McCarthy.

JIMMY TAFT leaves to Charlie McNeil his ability to hustle homework.

NORMAN THOMAS leaves his hitch-hiking ability to Irwin.

ALLEN THOMPSON leaves his charm with the girls to Joe Sirven.

WILBER THOMPSON leaves his musical talent to Harold West.

CHARLES TRUE leaves his good looks to "Daddy" Dorn, and all of his women.

PETE TRUITT takes all he owns with him.

DAVID TRULUCK leaves his furlough obtaining ability to Phillip Edwards.

NICK TUCKER wills his furlough ways to the entire Junior Class.

CHARLES WALLACE leaves his love for Tennessee to Captain Thompson.