

CHEERLEADERS

Left to Right: REID, BROWN, B., BAXTER, Head Cheerleader, LYON, MILLER, W. E.

Much credit is due the Cheerleaders for the splendid work they do in conjunction with the maintenance of school spirit. An inspiration to the team and players in action, the Cheerleaders keep interest and enthusiasm alive, regardless of the state and condition of the game. Their effervescence buoys the spirits of the spectators and players, and without their invaluable performance, functions in the realm of sports would lack the glitter of success, that with the Cheerleaders' presence, is so abundantly displayed.