

Lt. Colonel James M. Grimes

COMMANDANT OF CADETS

DEDICATION

We, the Annual Staff of 1953, dedicate our edition of the REBEL to the Commandant of Cadets, Lt. Col. James M. Grimes. "Diamond Jim," as he is affectionately nicknamed, has played a major part in our success and development at Carlisle.

Faculty adviser to the Senior Class, Col. Grimes has lent his untiring efforts in helping us attend to the many duties, obligations, and problems which we are obliged with as seniors at Carlisle.

In the years following, when you, Col. Grimes, turn the aged pages of our yearbook, we hope that you will look upon and remember the Class of '53 as a group of men who served as an example and inspiration for future Carlisle cadets.
