

LAST WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1953, having been declared as sound of mind and sane in senses, do hereby declare this as our last will and testament.

ARTICLE 1

To the Faculty we leave our everlasting thanks for helping us to be the best Senior Class.

ARTICLE 3

To the Junior Class we leave the joy of becoming Seniors.

ARTICLE 3

To the poor unfortunate rats and underclassmen we leave our most cherished possessions and traits.

AGNEW leaves second base to "Cutie" Austin.

AUSTIN, L. R. leaves his love for Carlisle food(?) to Maxey O'Tuel.

BAKER leaves the string band to "Little Joe" and Robert Hodges.

BAXTER leaves to Bannister his physics book, to O'Brien his bed, and his love for hillbilly music to McNeil.

BOYKIN leaves his nose to McConnell in hopes that "Moe" will be able to make as good use of it as he has.

BREMER leaves his old black socks to Henry J. to use for the next two years.

BRUNSON leaves to Col. Risher the ditch that he has dug by walking the bull ring, and hopes that he will use it as a foundation for a new barracks.

BULLARD leaves to Minshew, Bowen and Trowell his ability to do the wrong things at the right time and not get caught.

CARBONELL leaves the supply depot and armory to "Lazy" Sigg.

CLANCY leaves the Bugle and the headaches that go with it to Val Lipscomb.

DABNEY leaves his love for Carlisle to Pundt, for it seems that he will spend quite a few more of the happiest years of his life here.

DOONAN leaves his book, "How to Get Along With Girls," to Conrad Sigg.

DORN leaves to Sam Wilson his ability to snow all the women in all the cities of the world except Bamberg.

DUCKWORTH leaves gruesome thoughts of all night vigils to next year's Editor-in-Chief of the REBEL.

DUGGAN, E. E. leaves his black loafers to Lipscomb because he wears them all the time, anyway.

DUGGAN, J. H. leaves to Val Lipscomb his college algebra and physics books in hopes that he enjoys serving restrictions as much as he did.

ECONOMOS leaves his ability to snow women to "Fairy Queen."

ELKING leaves Carlisle to the Indians.

ESCUE leaves to all the future members of the Block "C" Club the thought of having sore rumps for weeks to come.

FOX, C. S. leaves the hospital to "Dr." Reber.

GARNER leaves his ability to come in 45 minutes late off leave and get caught to Fetzer.

GILLIAM leaves to "The Snide" his good looks and posterior anatomy.

GRIFFIN leaves to Joe Hunter his ability to be the greatest goldbrick that Carlisle has ever had.

GRINNELL leaves John Lowther to his next roommate.

HARMON wills to his mother the diploma that he slaved so hard to earn.

HART leaves his ability to outfox Captain Risher to Hobbie.

HILL leaves his hard earned P.F.C. stripes to next year's senior private.

HUNTER, J. E. leaves his old fatigue hat to Charlie Jones, and to Waddy the 9th he leaves "A" company in hopes that he will do as good a job as he has.

JETER leaves to "Mullit" Hester a bottle of air-wick to take care of his pet fish.

JUMPER leaves his good looks to "Little Joe."

KERR leaves the Bamberg Airport to Jim Bradin.

KUIPERS leaves his good looks and manly ways to Helmken.
