

AND TESTAMENT

LANEY leaves all his ability to drill to Ferrell Posey.

LEONHARDT leaves his position on the staff to anyone who is sucker enough to be the lowest member of the staff.

LESSIG, following in the footsteps of former Carlisle bums, leaves nothing and takes all with him.

LOWERY leaves the postoffice and his beloved physics book to Dicky McNeil.

LYON leaves his cat walk to Bannister and Helmken, and hopes that they will be able to get as many women as he has.

MCCARTHY wills to "Bub" McConnell his ability to snow the women of the world, and also his good looks.

MCCASKILL leaves his ability to get into trouble to Wade and Page.

MCKAIN leaves to Berry his two K.P. tables, and his ability to slip in the back door after fall in and not get caught.

MCNEIL, C. D. wills to "Fat Rat" his batting average of 32 and his position on the mound.

MACDONALD, J. P. leaves to "Fairy Queen" when he receives his commission, his cross arms, Sam Brown, saber and all the rest of the junk.

MILLER, W. E. leaves to Gillion his ability to pass physics.

MILLER, W. P. leaves his well-worn college algebra book to Capt. Risher.

MOORE leaves all the Bamberg "Queens" to Henry J.

NOEL leaves his seat on the basketball bench to Featherston.

NOWELL leaves his office work to Bradin.

OSTEEN leaves his place in the Baptist Choir to Faircloth.

OWEN leaves his many trips to the canteen to some poor rat.

PAINÉ leaves his wonderful Carlisle bed to Kitching.

PINNER leaves to Edwards his ability to stay restricted all year.

RAMSEY leaves his ability to get on the basketball bus late to Shiehl.

RIVERA leaves his dancing ability to Capt. Roberts.

ROBERTS, T. W. leaves his Cpl. chevrons to Featherston.

SHADLE leaves his good looks, personality, and ability to graduate to "Fat Rat."

SHAW leaves to Capt. Burch $1.00 with the understanding that he will buy a new roll of tape for his paddle.

SIMPSON leaves the rubble of Carlisle to Uncle Willie, his diploma he takes with him.

SLAUGHTER wills "Click-Click" to "Hitler" Bradin.

STEELE leaves to Hollis his ability to graduate after twenty years at hard labor.

STOLLER leaves to Burley Bannister his faithful John Deere tractor.

STUCKEY leaves to the Carlisle laboratory a new Gilbert Chemistry Set.

SUMMEY leaves his Captain Personnel to some lucky cadet.

THREATT leaves his love for "Black Dog" to McAbee.

VANNES leaves his love for the South to Guirado.

VILA leaves the bull ring to Cleaves.

WALDROP leaves to Hollis his good looks, ability to get ratings, and his ability to conduct parties after taps and get caught.

WEISNER wills to "Big Greek" his ability to get along with Capt. Risher.

WHITE, E. G. leaves to O'Brien his ability to run Carlisle.

WHITE, L. A. leaves his chicken roost, his lead pencil, and his everlasting supply of paper to Capt. Thompson.

WILLIAMS leaves Carlisle—period.

WILSON, J. P. leaves all the Walterboro girls to Wright.

WILSON, T. E. leaves "C" Company to the unlucky rats of next year.