The Carlisle Brigadiers, a group of the more accomplished musicians drawn from the C. M. S. Band, play an important role in the social proceedings of the school curriculum. Directed by Capt. William Scaffé, and Cadet Pete Grinnell, they provide pleasant melodies from their bandstand for formal and informal dances. They are frequently asked to perform for outside engagements.
