

BATTALION

The Cadets at Carlisle undergo a rigid military curriculum. Aside from their daily drill and Sunday Dress Parades, the students are subjected to a maximum amount of military training in regular military science and tactics classes. Here they are taught not only to be a good soldier in war, but also a good citizen in peace. These classes are instructed by the P.M.S.&T., Capt. Waddy Thompson.

The Cadet Corps is under strict military discipline and supervision at all times. All school regulations are carried out through the cadet commissioned and non-commissioned officers, as well as by the faculty.

Carlisle operates on the age-old honor system, and military courtesy is traditional.

The student body has received much recognition and praise for its functioning as a well-disciplined and well-trained military unit. It is only through the complete cooperation of each individual that this achievement could have been attained.
