

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1955, having been declared as sound of mind and sane in senses, do hereby declare this as our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the faculty we leave our thanks and appreciation for all that they have done toward producing the most incomparable class ever.

ARTICLE II

To the Junior Class we leave the honor of becoming Seniors.

ARTICLE III

To the poor unfortunate rats and underclassmen we leave our most-cherished possessions and traits.

AUSTIN, E. G., leaves the lower half of South Carolina to Wilson Schulze to be presided over, with Summerville as its capital.

BARGER bequeaths his ability to go to Orangeburg, without getting caught (as he did) to Clay and Dixon, R. A.

BARTON endows Lyda with his room and all its collected dust; maybe he can give it to someone else.

BERRY bestows upon Bernhardt all the grits, rice, and biscuits he can eat.

BOLTIN wills his sympathy to the class of '56.

BRANNOCK leaves his collar stay to Jimmy Baker, if he can find it, and also his brains to Coroneas in hope that he can put them to better use than he did.

BRANTLEY bequeaths his ability to get out of M. P. duty to all the P.F.C.s of "A" Co. in '56.

BYRD, J. A., endows Billy Brown with his basketball uniform, No. 4.

CARSCADDEN bequeaths the trials and tribulations of the editorship of the Bugle, the easy life of captain-personnel, five night leaves a week, and unused set of senior textbooks, the love that all the faculty have for him, the ability to sleep through all classes with his eyes open after staying up 'til 5:00 A. M. the night before, and all the rest of his Carlisle possessions to be divided equally between Tommy Winters and Norman Voorhees with hopes that they may be able to talk the faculty into giving them to them.

CHEATHAM bestows his uniform upon the Salvation Army.

CRAWFORD wills his ability to Rikard of making extra night leave accidentally.

CROSBY leaves all his old cigarette butts to Clindon; may he use them sparingly.

CUNNINGHAM bequeaths his ability to answer questions which he knows nothing about to Wilson Schulze.

ECKHOLDT endows Stover with the Carlisle Male Chorus, Black Dog, Buppy, and Colgate.

ELIPOULOS bestows "B" Co. upon the Bradley Brothers in hope they will soon grow tall enough to become members.

ELLIOTT wills to Capt. Dallas his almost new French book minus several pages.

ELLIS leaves all of his "Pink Passion" letters to the brunet who works in Kemp Cleaners.

EXLEY bequeaths his ability to sort out reports incorrectly to anyone who gets the job.

FERNS leaves Carlisle, after five long years, with some wonderful memories of a great school.

FINCHER endows his dark secrets of magic to Cregg, Spears and Winters.

FINLEY bestows upon Betty Chavot his ability to do the rifle manual.

FLYNN wills a deck of worn out cards to Billy Tharpe.

FRANKLIN leaves his hard-earned diploma to his mother and to Mauricio his ability to stay out of love.

GARRETT bequeaths all of his unpaid debts to Jake Olsen and all of his great French grades also.

HAIR bestows upon Mackey his ability to pull special leaves and furloughs.

HARLEY gives to juniors the easy life of a senior.

HEFFRON wills to his mother his hard-earned diploma and to "B" Company's next captain the ability to swing a paddle at the right time.

HICKLIN leaves "click click" to Darby.

HORTON bequeaths to Posey his ability to get mail twice a day; he needs it bad.

JOHNSON, L. C., endows Johnson, M. P., with two more years of Carlisle in hope that he will enjoy it.

KING bestows his physics book upon any cadet who wants it.

LAMONTAGNE wills his bed to Bobby Bernhardt; he spends most of his afternoons there anyway.

LITTLEJOHN leaves to Rahn, W., and Jack Bragg his hundred dollar hat and his three hundred dollar suit.

MCELWANEY bequeaths his ability to become a senior someday to Fetzter.

MCNEIL endows to Charlie "The Bat" Jones and Billy "The Kid" Tharpe his ability to dislike and be disliked by all Bamberg girls.

MAJOR bestows his sergeant chevrons to Jack Grieves and George Fittz in hope that they will make the grade, and will be able to use them as well as he did.

MARTIN wills to Capt. "Salade" a bottle of hair restorer and door knob polish.

MANGLES leaves his ability to Clifton to be at least ten minutes late to every class and get reported.

NILES bequeaths the art of dancing the double twirl and landing in Ellis' trunk to Gregory.

O'BRIEN endows his kindly Geechie talk to Yankee Bernhardt.

OUTEN bestows Kenneth LeRoy Kuipers to "Hoghead" Posey.

RABON, L. P., wills his bed to anyone who will have it.

RAHN, W. C., leaves Carlisle to Rahn, W.

RAY bequeaths to Posey the Jane Tood Inn in hopes that he will be able to hold his drinks better.

RICHARDSON bestows his telephone system to Taylor and hopes he doesn't get caught.

RODRIGUEZ bequeaths his love for Sgt. of the Guard to Fetzter.

SHARPE wills Carlisle to the Indians, in hopes they will rebuild Guilds Hall.

SMITH, F. H., leaves his ability to fall asleep in Capt. Estes "most interesting" English class to Bernhardt and Coroneas.

STEED bequeaths the metropolis of Bamberg to Callahan.

STONE endows; being of sound mind and not under the alkafuence of inkohol, and in the presence of three outstanding citizens, Salzman, Hendee, and Bailey; to Billy Tharpe with his ability to get up happily at the first note of first call, and stay neat and wide awake throughout the day.

STRAWHECKER bestows his record for the biggest nose to "Scrooge" Machamer.

TOBIN bequeaths his ability to sleep late to Bernhardt.

TOOLE leaves his physics book and college algebra book to Nedell in hope that he has as much fun with them as he did.

TROWELL leaves Bamberg to anyone who wants it.

TYREE leaves the "Skyline Club" to Magruder, Olsen and Haithcock.

WADE bestows his ability to pitch baseball to Smith, H. W.

WALL bequeaths to Harold Oakley room 203 in Memorial Barracks.

WALLACE leaves to Jenness his rifle and fond memories.

WASH wills his ability to graduate from Carlisle to Tharpe.

WEARMOUTH "High ideals and higher goals,
To sweet Neil Lund flows."

WILSON, M. J. bequeaths his fountain pen and address book to Stover and Nedell.

WOOD endows Parker with his ability to fly and walk away from the landing.

ZEIGLER wills to Johnson, M. P., a half a tube of toothpaste so he won't run out next year.

ZEMP leaves his drugstore to Rev. Stroman.