

CROSS SABER CLUB

Honor, Loyalty, and Tradition outline the basis for one of the oldest organizations at Carlisle, the Cross Saber Club. Membership in the club is limited to the commissioned officers who are responsible for the training and discipline of the battalion. On the judgment of these cadets depends the success or failure of the Cadet Corps. These men are competitively selected, on the basis of their initiative and integrity, for securing military efficiency and maintaining an esprit de corps.

With the performance of his duties, the commissioned officer learns leadership and a sense of responsibility which enlightens his human understanding. All of these things play an important part in molding the sturdy character of a man.
