

RETREAT

As the sun sinks slowly out of sight and another day comes to end at Carlisle, you will find a memorable scene which will remain in your heart for years to come.

This is one of the most solemn occasions that one can observe. As the bugler plays retreat the cadet corps pays its homage to the flag of the United States as it is lowered.