

COLOR GUARD

The colors of the United States are a symbol of the greatness of this country. This symbol must be guarded and protected from any aggression. The Color Guard is organized for this purpose.

The Color Guard is made up of four sergeants, two of them, master sergeants. They serve on the Battalion Staff when not in formation as the Color Guard.

HICKMAN, SCHULTZ, ROSS, LANGSTON

