The Cross Sabre Club is composed of the Cadet Commissioned Officers of Carlisle. During the year they sponsor many activities on campus, such as dances, raffles, and many other money raising enterprises. Lt. Col. Rodney Culwell is chairman, and Major Waddy Thompson is the faculty advisor and treasurer.

One of the buildings on the campus has been outfitted by the Cross Sabre Club with furniture and a television. The officers may use the club house in the afternoon and, if they have a high enough scholastic average, they may use it at night during study period.
