

PRESIDENT

COL. JAMES F. RISHER was born in Hampton County, S. C., and graduated, in the class of 1911, from The Citadel. He taught in the public schools of Colleton County, and was the Superintendent of Ehrhardt High School for two years. In 1924, he came to Carlisle to teach, and in 1928 was made Headmaster, purchasing the school in 1939. In 1958 he purchased Camden Military Academy, and he now serves as Col.-President of Carlisle and Camden. Besides being a top-rate educator, Col. Risher has held many important positions in community and national organizations. The Corps of Cadets appreciates his influence on our lives, and we are proud to have known him.

HEADMASTER

COL. W. R. RISHER was born in Ehrhardt in 1927. He attended the Bamberg grade school and graduated for Carlisle Military School in 1944. In 1947 he graduated from The Citadel with a B.S. degree in Physics. After doing graduate work at the University of North Carolina, he came to Carlisle in 1948, where he became instructor of Physics. In 1958 he was made Headmaster of Carlisle. Col. Risher is also active in community and national affairs, having been vice-president in charge of public affairs for the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce. We are very fortunate to have such a man as our headmaster.
