

INFORMAL DANCES

The informal dances are part of the varied social life at Carlisle. Many of these dances are held throughout the year, providing a needed change-of-pace and hours of enjoyment to Carlisle Cadets and their dates. Music at these informal dances is provided by the "Tremoloes," a rock-and-roll combo shown below. Their music this year has been a contributing factor in the fine successes of the informal dances.

THE TREMELOES. Left to Right: EXELY, MORRIS, PASE, LEEZER, McARTHUR, RICHARDS.

