

WILL WE

EVER

FORGET

Major Sturgeon saying "Check with me later?"
The way Raible stuck up for the Yankees?
The way Major Eargle drove his car?
The day the Senior rings came in and how many Seniors still had them at the end of the year?
The sound of revellie?
The sound of taps?
The night before Christmas furlough?
Why Captain Steadman always wore his hat?
Captain Young "tucking" his shirt?
Miss Judy and "Clyde's Grill"?
Those cold winter days when Major Thompson made us go to drill?
Our first day at Carlisle?
Our last day at Carlisle?
Fagan and his "boondockers"?
The way the 1960 Golden Cyclone played football?
Colonel Grimes saying: "Keeping on keeping on" or "from time to time"?

Bozeman's hair?
The last dress parade, and the Seniors on the reviewing line?
Captain Hancock's Buick, and the fuss it made?
Johnny Reid in French class?
Johnny Crosby saying "Very Good"?
Jug Parrish counting cadence?
Mrs. Thompson, and the kindness she showed us when we were confined to the infirmary?
The "Goldbrick Squad" every morning?
The extra sleep we got on Sundays?
Malcom and Frank?
The "tuna fish" sandwiches everyone seemed to eat?
Herschelman and his "Hemlock"?
Colonel McCaffrie's visit to Carlisle?
Captain Hancock saying: "Okay, Rest"?
Owens' nose?
Colonel Risher saying: "Young gentlemen"?
