

PRESIDENT

Colonel James F. Risher

Colonel Risher was born in Hampton County, S. C. and graduated in the class of 1911, from The Citadel. He taught in the public schools of Colleton County, and was the Superintendent of Ehrhardt High School for two years. In 1924 he came to Carlisle to teach, and in 1928 was made Headmaster, purchasing the school in 1939. In 1958 he purchased Camden Military Academy, and he now serves as Colonel-President of both schools. Besides being a top rate educator, Colonel Risher has held many important positions in community and national organizations. We, the Cadet Corps of Carlisle, Greatly appreciate the knowledge and influence we have received from such a gentleman as this.

HEADMASTER

Colonel William R. Risher

Colonel W. R. Risher was born in Ehrhardt in 1927. He attended the Bamberg grade school and graduate from Carlisle in 1944. In 1947 he graduated from The Citadel with a B.S. degree in Physics. After doing graduate work at the University of North Carolina, he came to Carlisle in 1948, where he became instructor of Physics. In 1958, Colonel Risher was made Headmaster of Carlisle. He is also active in community affairs, having been vice-president in charge of public affairs for the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce. We are, indeed, very fortunate and thankful to have such a man as our headmaster.
