

COMMANDANT OF CADETS

Colonel James M. Grimes

Lt. Col. James M. Grimes was born in Bamberg, S. C., and attended the public schools of Bamberg, graduating from Bamberg High School. He attended The Citadel and graduated from Wofford with an A.B. degree. Upon graduation from Wofford, he was commissioned to a 2nd Lt. in the U. S. Army Reserves. During World War II he was a Captain in the South Carolina State Guard. Col. Grimes has been at Carlisle 26 years where he has served as Commandant of Cadets. He presently teaches American History. Through the guidance of Col. Grimes, cadets have found a fuller and richer meaning in Carlisle.

PROFESSOR OF MILITARY SCIENCE

Major Waddy Thompson

Major Waddy Thompson was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee. During his high school years he attended Notre Dame, also in Tennessee. In 1942 he graduated from The Citadel, Charleston, South Carolina, and then joined the faculty at Carlisle. For twenty years Major Thompson has served as P.M.S. He has not only attained the respect of cadets, but also a prominent place among the citizens of Bamberg. It is to Major Thompson, that the Carlisle cadets owe much of their leadership abilities and esprit de corps.
