

Seniors! We are about to bid farewell to Carlisle. We have come a long way since the day we first dressed off in a recruit line. When we leave we will take much of Carlisle with us—and, we hope, as another proud graduating class, we will leave much of ourselves behind. May this annual and all the memories it contains remember us to Carlisle as affectionately as it will remember Carlisle to us.

Thank you,

JOHN ANTHONY, Editor.