

In Memoriam

CAPTAIN JOSEPH NORMAN

This past year the faculty and Corps of Cadets were sad to see the passing of Captain Norman. He began teaching at Carlisle in September of 1961 and in his time here ably served the Corps both as a fine teacher and an excellent athletic instructor. We hope that in years to come his memory will be instilled in the history of Carlisle.