

FOREWORD

Soon another year will be over, and will belong to the past. We have travelled a long hard way from registration to graduation. We've made some friends and a lot of memories, and with each day we learned a little more of life. The time is close when the seniors will walk across one stage and enter a new stage of their lives. With them, they carry a part of Carlisle and, in return, Carlisle retains a part of them. It is my hope that this, the 1964 REBEL, will through the years help in keeping bright our memories of this part of our lives.

Thank You,
ROY PHILLIPS, Editor.
