

In Memoriam

Capt. George F. Garrison

Capt. George F. Garrison, teacher at Carlisle Military School, died on May 22, 1965, of injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

He was a son of J. Carlton and Alice McClellan Garrison of Anderson, S. C. The entire Corps of Cadets share in their grief.

A 1961 graduate of The Citadel, Capt. Garrison made quite an impression as an athlete, being named All-American and All-Conference as a football player.

His loss had a profound effect on the Cadet Corps and he will be missed by all who knew him.
