

SENIOR WILLS

I, DON ATKINSON, will to "Breeze" my ability to play cards and not lose eighty-one dollars.

I, ROBERT BELL, will Maj. Steadman a case of Pepsis.

I, JOHN BRAMMER, in my last will and testament hereby will my diseased roommate 2 cans of Brasso to clean the third floor fire extinguishers and to all the Juniors good luck in their Senior year.

I, BILL BROWN, will Capt. Minchow the ability to play the Bar Cords, and to Royster my Cpl. stripes, to Momeier my Bar.

I, MIKE BYRUM, leave my ability to pull Special Leave to go horseback riding to Jennings.

I, TRENT CANADY, leave Scott Lawson the ability to live through disappointments, Rogers, H. C., my pacifier, and Vick my fancy pants.

I, JAMES CHAPMAN, will and bequeath the "Duck" to Howell Myers, my Senior class colors to Richardson and my inability to haze and get away with it to Joe Wooley.

I, DAVE CLARK, will Tommy my privilege to not get Subject Restricted, to Ronnie I leave my grandmother's cookies and cakes, and to David B. another year at Carlisle.

I, ROY CLARKE, will Billy McCue the ability to get a nice, clean, decent girl from Orangeburg like I did. And to T. S. Hammond the ability to have a small neck so he can go with any girl, and to Byrd Owens the ability to drive a maroon Corvair while on Sgt. of the Guard.

I, MOOSE COLLINS, leave to Sandy Schultz my two most treasured volumes, "Creative Thinking" and "Grimm's Fairy Tales."

I, JERRY COUNIHAN, leave to some "People" the ability not to be so Technical.

I, TOMMY COWAN, will to Scott Lawson the ability to find a girl like mine.

I, DEE DeROSA, do hereby will to the fortunate person the Mess Hall and its problems. To anyone who wants the job of typing Special Orders without mistakes, and to Scody my key chain with the keys to the school.

I, STEVE DUNCAN, will to Sandy Schultz my platoon of crusty socks.

I, ROBBY ENNIS, do hereby will Terry Hammond the dancing abilities of James Brown, all the "soul" in Solomon Burke, and all the coolness of James Bond.

I, LEWIS GIVENS, will to Art Magruder, the ability to make academic leave as I never did.

I, JIMMY GRANTHAM, will that nice loose board in my wall to Brimp, Charlie, and Vic.

I, JESSE GRIFFIN, hereby bequeath to the next editor of my newspaper column the ability to write as scathing and outspoken an editorial as I have done.

I, RICHARD GUPTON, leave to my brother one pair of played out tennis shoes and the luck and skill to play basketball.

I, JOHNATHAN HAGER, will my ability to walk the Bull Ring to Charlie Dickerson and to leave Maj. Sturgeon my ability to master the French Language.

I, BILLY HAMMOND, will to Capt. Green my good looks and to Fink another wonderful year at Carlisle.

I, BILL HAUSER, will my "cotton tail" and "silver bullets" to Capt. Walters, so he can get out of drill. To Charlie Bowers I invest the responsibility for the preservation of "Red Eye's" great name.

I, LARRY HELMS, hereby leave my good looks to "Bird" Owens and to "Snooze" Baroody a normal nose so that he'll have more girls in Augusta.

I, LEARNED HOFFMAN, will to Charlie Bowers twenty autographed pictures of myself so he won't have to work so hard to blackmail me because of my female friends.

I, RICHARD HOLDEN, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my ability to keep track of time to Col. Patton.

I, THOMAS HUNTLEY, will to "Rock" the ability to be patient and understanding.

I, ERNEST JACKSON, will my ability to drive a bus safely to Chuck Merrick and John Smith.

I, RONALD JABOBS, will to Buggy Newton, Capt. of "A" Company, may he be happy.

I, DANIEL JONES, leave to Anderson, I., my ability to drive safely.

I, RONALD JOY, will my ability to do the mashed taters on one foot to Billy McCue and Terry Hammond mainly, because they are the only ones left with enough coolness to do so.

I, LARRY JOYE, leave to Wilson my ability to keep down hours, to McCue I leave the joy of knowing I'm going and taking my record player with me.

I, JEFF KENNEDY, will to Johnny Hinley a four weeks supply of bread, to Phillip Colman my dilapidated shower shoes.

I, DAVID LEE, will David Duke my ability of going to church five times in two years and to Butch Wiggins a golden "Church Key". For Kicks, T. S., a date with my girl that drives the blue Corvair.

I, VAN LEWIS, will to Mark Atkins my ability to walk a straight line as a Guide Sgt. at Dress Parade.

I, DALE MALLORY, leave to all of you Juniors, Carlisle.

I, MONTY MILLER, leave my Daisy Air Rifle to Col. Thompson's Military class.

I, BUGGY NEWTON, will to "Stitch" Nissen one slightly tarnished 2nd Lt. button which was temporarily used for seven months, to "Little Doe" Marchant "4" weeks restriction, 2 weeks mixing and 2 weeks spreading, to Billy McCue his 5th year a success at C.M.S.

I, PARKER ORR, will my way of being the only rat to Cherry Mann.

I, DANIEL O'SHEA, leave Tommy Wood the ability to pass an exam on the first try. To Steve Pentz, a stack of English language records, and to Randy Thomas a new big toe.

I, RAUL PACHECO, leave to Major Sturgeon my ability to diagram and to speak Spanish. To Eric Furr my roommate, I leave my ability to find a roommate next year as good as I did this year, and to David Blanchard "best of luck" in his Senior Year, which he will need.

I, RANDY PALMER, leave to Howell Myers my ability to waste time during study period and my ability to "fight".

I, JOHN PARSONS, will Capt. Hatrich the ability to be discreet. I, TERRY PATTERSON, will Turney McDowell all my empty Pepsi bottles.

I, JOHN PEAT, will to Johnny Hinley my supreme luck with reports—"hours" that is. To Phil Colman, my corroded N.D.C.C. chevrons.

I, THOMAS PETREA, hereby will to Maj. Sturgeon my ability to diagram, my ability to be a lawyer to Capt. Theatt, the privilege of wearing Carlisle play suits and G. I. haircuts to the underclassmen.

I, FRANK PIKE, will to Pridden a pair of P.F. flyers for his steam shovel legs and—Marchant—Miss America—Carol.

I, JOE POWELL, will Buddy Agan my class colors for next year.

I, JACK QUINN, will to Tom Peebles my ability to get the scoop on Capt. Zemps U. S. History test, and may he learn who Capt. Zemp is fighting for.

I, JOHN RAINES, being of sound mind do hereby leave the Ivey Halls of Carlisle to Charlie Henry and Eddie Finck.

I, THEODORE REA, will my ability to grow long hair to all the Juniors who'll have G. I.'s next year.

I, BOBBY REID, being of sound mind will to Eddie Laffite and Legare Prevatte my "Farmer Johns" and all my Otis Reding Albums.

I, ROSCOE RILEY, will to Dow Marchant one burnt mattress and my ability to put out fires.

I, NICK RIMEDIO, hereby will T. S. Hammond my fish eating badge so he may eat on Friday.

I, EDDIE SCHOTT, hereby bequeath Connell Jones a furlough for the coming year to attend the annual family Coon Hunt.

I, CALVIN SECKINGER, will to Eddie Laffite one pair of basketball shoes, and the number 14 in basketball next year.

I, JIMMY SEIGNIOUS, will to Howell Neyers five gray shirts and one pair of football shoes in fair condition, to Colby I will the ability to have a house ape all year without getting caught.

I, JERRY STANSELL, will to Roy Dunn my ability to sleep through Maj. Sturgeons class without getting caught and my shiny silk tie.

I, STEVE STEVENS, will to Smiley McDowell, Miss Judy and Clydes, to Howell Myers my ability to pass Senior English and to my roommates Richardson and Alexander the ability to keep out of trouble.

I, TOMMY SUMMER, will to Buggy Newton his 2nd Lt. back so he won't talk about it so much.

I, DWIGHT TANKERSLEY, bequeath to "Stitch" and "Doe" the ability to wear short hair.

I, BILLY THORNTON, will to Maj. Steadman my ability to grow hair, because he desires it, and more he needs it.

I, JAMES WILLIAMS, will to Randy Thomas my ability to "Goof Off" and get restricted, to Buddy Agan my Senior Colors, to Steve Cobb a Charles Atlas muscle building course.

I, RUBY WILLIAMSON, will to Sally my ability to walk and chew gum at the same time.

I, ROBERT WRIGHT, will to Brian Marchant my outstanding ability to hold liquor. And to the "Nurse", I leave another virus epidemic.

I, GARY WRIGHT, will Sally Simmons my ability to go to Carlisle 3 years without walking the bullring and remaining a Pvt., and will T. S. the keys to the little red S. S. Chevy.

I, BILL YATES, leave to Freddy Bair my French book and room 215 for next year. To Frank Wester, I leave an extra day on Xmas furlough to spend in Jacksonville, to Vickery I leave a 6 weeks "Charles Atlas" building course, to Charlie Dickerson I leave another 2 years at Carlisle in which he may become a "Manly Man".

I, RICHARD YOWELL, leave Larry Hamer my Senior Class colors and my colored light bulbs. To Carlisle, I leave my type-writer.