

FOREWORD

The presentation of this 1967 REBEL marks the end of another long and hard year. It was a long and hard road at first, but with the corporation of everyone this year has turned out to be one of the best ever. For over a hundred of us, it has been too short and now we are wondering what the future holds for us.

We have done many things and have seen many changes in us and in the school, but they are all memories to us now. But there is one thing that will always be with us, and that is our education that we have received from our instructors, who we are greatly in debt to.

As you look through this book it will bring back many memories of happiness, but for others, sadness.

The 1967 REBEL will always keep these memories close to our hearts as the years pass by.
