

Senior Wills-Continued

I, DAVID JOHNS, will to Bill Connelley room 213 for next year, to Waldrep my ability to play the trumpet so well, and to Butch Shane the ability to blow the bugle on time.

I, TOM JONES, will to Mack "Sniffy" Hicks one bumming license, to Steve Tolar one can of beer, to Kudlevicz a chef's hat and a new set of dishes, to Wooten a new trigger guard, to Tommy McBride 10 disapproved O.C.'s, and to Jimmy Dunn the ability to cut hair.

I, WILLIAM KENNEDY, will to David Carter my fun at Carlisle for the next few years and to Smith, R. A., to get up with all the other birds.

I, LAYTON LAMB, will to Rick Cochran another year at Carlisle and Captain Adjutant so he can call up the battalion and to Dennis Littlejohn two years at Carlisle and a living relationship with Fred.

I, WALTER LANGKAIT, will to Buddy Herlinger, Mike Burshell and Bruce Goodyear my share of the back half of a tractor trailer truck and its contents.

I, HENRY LEE, will to Slop the honor of being a senior next year, to Jane Simmons many more parties without getting sick and to Robert Porter some brains.

I, ROBERT LeMASTER, will to David a Happy Year in Major Sturgeon's class, to Bert my tomahawk and to Craig my good looks.

I, LEON LEWIS, will to the sucker that gets my rank and my job my deepest regrets and to Col. Grimes more understanding toward the boys and their problems.

I, FRANK McCOLLUM, will to Jimmy Dunn my tank helmet, to Bill Wooten all the dirty oil rags in the armory and to Lindsey my talent of shooting pool.

I, ART MAGRUDER, will to Turney McDowell and Clark Edwards my three-year-old forearm pads.

I, JOSEPH MAULDIN, will to Johnny Royal my ability to get to formation on time.

I, ARTHUR MERRY, will to Clark Edwards the ability to write his own letters and to be discreet with rats, to Clarence the ability to play football, P. L. Phillips the lobby of the Dinkler Plaza Hotel and to Rick Cochran I leave A Company.

I, RAYMOND PASE, will to all the juniors another year of dear old Carlisle, to Rick Cochran a clean pair of socks, to Amos Curry a new typewriter, to Jane Simmons a new bra and to Freddy Selvey my toothbrush.

I, JERRY PUGH, will to underclassmen all the good graces of C.M.S. and to Capt. Zemp a manual on "How to fly at night without really trying."

I, RANDY THOMAS, will to John Hutchison the ability to always get caught, to Pase a trip to see the Tams, to Legg a file for his teeth.

I, WILLIAM TINDAL, will to Gregg a new list of Girls, Oh Boy!, to Jay Towels a new pair of orange socks, they did stink.

I, TOMMY TUCKER, will to David Duke anything he can beg, steal, or borrow and another year at Carlisle, to Buddy Reaves the entire town of Mullins and to Mack Hicks a lifetime supply of Lemon Flip.

I, JOSEPH VESTAL, will to Cuthbertson our laundry bags of dirty socks and my ability to do algebra, to Jow Williams one red light blub and a knock off hut from my M.G. and Friday nights with Phyllis and to Porkey Holmes my slim waist and big ears.

I, GEORGE VICKERY, will to Rogers a ladder to be able to make up his bed, to Clinkscales my ability to pull a furlough, and to Exley my little red box.

I, PAUL WILLIAMS, will to Col. Patton all my marbles and my World War II Nazi flag, to Col. Thompson a stack of Ku Klux Klan literature and to Col. Grimes one bad case of lock jaw.

I, PHILIP ZAPP, will to Bill Connelley my ability to miss telephone poles at 80 m.p.h., to Bergaus my ability to play golf, and to the junior class I leave Carlisle for one year.

I, DAVID RIGBYS, will to Allen Jordan one pair of Genuine Indian moccasins "made in Japan", to H. Rogers a bamboo forest so he will never go without a reed, to Rick Cochran one bird cage and to Dennis Littlejohn one box of "Ex-Lax".

I, JOHN RINEHART, will to David, Jack, Mike, and Bud my ability to get plastered and not get caught and to the rats, dear old Carlisle.

I, MICHAEL SCHICK, will to Glenn Kudlevicz any can of air freshener and an asbestos air filter and to Jeff Johnson a clean pressed shirt.

I, ALBERT SLONE, will to Jent one girdle to go with his pretty blue garters and to Shuler the "give it that method" for special occasions.

I, JOHN SMITH, will to John Kershaw my good looks and charm so he can get a white girl, to Zumbunnen my football socks and my ability to espionage without getting caught, to Clark Edwards my ability to drink liquor like a man and to Rick Cochran his rug back and to the rest of the cadets, I do leave.

I, PIERRE TAVEL, will to Phillips, H. J., my position in A Company and my credit card to Collins Pavilion, to Potter his act of quick furloughs and to Sammy Kramer my ability to go to church, who hasn't been yet this year, as I have done.