

BART BRICKLE (above)
CLASS CLOWN

Man's a phenomenon, one knows not what,
And wonderful beyond all wondrous measure;
'Tis pity though, in this sublime world, that
Pleasure's a sin, and sometimes sin's a pleasure.

— Byron

DAVID CAPPS (below)
WITTIEST

It was the brave Columbus,
A sailing o'er the tide,
Who notified the nations
Of where I would reside!

— Dickinson
