

AND TESTAMENT

booster for his T.V., and again to Jorge the good fortune to become "J.C." next year in the fabulous Bamberg parade.

I, Bud Herlinger will to Bobie Yates my history notes and my Word Power Book, to Jack Davis my ability to be bad, to Capt. Zempa a ten pound bag of Hartz Mountain Bird Seed, to Brakett all my good grades, a jar of flies to Frog Geddings, and to Col. Thompson my lucky rabbit's foot.

I, John Hill will to Mike Berry one lampshade, to Thornley a nose operation, to Bobby Heos a half gallon of P.J., to John Iverson a book on how not to Afro-American rig a Police light, to Ivey a fog horn, to David Nichols a bottle of peroxide, to Capt. Lawton five pounds of rat poison for those stinking Gerblis of his, to Jim Johnson a bottle of Listerine, to Jeff Waers a life time hair dryer.

I, Buddy Hoffman will to Mattison one more year at Carlisle, to Younginer a SFC, to Jim Rivers the Armory, and to John Iverson my ability to not get caught, and to Wenningham I leave Carlisle.

I, John Holsonback, hereby will Ernie Yates all the good times we had, to Bobby Heos my big ears, to Jim Johnson my ability to ride motorcycles without getting hurt, to the underclassmen the good times they will never see after the Class of "72" leaves, and to Capt Zemp a pair of gold-plated toe-taggars.

I, Robert Humphries, will to Bill Geddings a swamp to play in, To Mike Berry my last penny, To Billy Chapman 3 more years at Carlisle, To Michael McGougan some Rank and my ability to keep it, To Bobby Goodrich and Tommy Meacham a year without me picking at them, To Greg Freeman a commission, and To the class of "73" the ability to be as great as the class of "72."

I, Rick Johnson, being of sound mind and body 3 weeks after Football season, will to Hank Mixon my ability to stay out of trouble, To Bobby Hulme a permanent job as bouncer at "BIF JOHNS," To Eddy Mattison my Drill Team, and first place in Washington next year, To Jack Griffin my "FIVE" year torches, and To Grady and Williams 15 cents and a pack of cigarettes.

I, William Kearse, will Jack Slone all of my socks so he can wash them, to Tebeau and Deitz one of my senior colors each and hopes that someone else will leave them another one. To Danny Davis the ability to drive a race car, and To Ebersold I leave Becky.

I, Stan LaRoche will to Joe Owens another year with Alice, to Capt. Zemp a new sitter for the owlets "WHO" won't fall asleep on the job, To Sammy Tull a black and white T.V. so he won't THINK he rooms in the T.V. room, and To next year's Maj. his choice between OD and being in charge of weeks.

I, Lloyd Lent, waiting for this year to end, will to "HAIRYOS" a great life with Trish Ward, to Dodd a very not wanting to clean up my room, to Capt. Lawton a case of beer "VERY HOT," to Dandridge a commission, to myself Miss Cheryl Lynn Saul, and to Paul a dirty, sticky-stache.

I, Pat Linderman, (P.W., G.L.S., MIGHTY MOUSE . . . etc.), will to Bubba Dandridge, my "crusty rug," another wonderful year at Carlisle, a pack of Viceroy's; and, most of all, PAULA! To Roger McCutchen, many more Rats to beat on; To Coit Yaroborough, a dozen bottles of "slide" oil; and to Jan, ME!, for a long time to come.

I, Steven Wayne McClendon, being of sound body and questionable mind do hereby bequeath all the following earthly and spiritual belongings to the following deserving and decrepit cadets as long as they are cadets at CARLISLE: To P.F.C. Newsome I leave my new pair of glasses for him to fog up!

To Sgt. Linderman I leave a new book I just bought.

To Sgt. Dandridge I leave Paula.

To P.F.C. Hanna I leave a 1973 Playboy Calendar.

I, Jack McElveen, will to William Ernest Geddings one more year of listening to the tooth fairy, and To Davis my ability as squad Sgt. during Recruit Company.

I, Andy McIver, will to James Taylor one more happy year at Carlisle, to Company B, I wish the best of luck in the future dress parades, to Mike Berry one more hard year at Carlisle and the ability of not getting caught skipping church, and to the rest of the underclassmen I will the best of luck and happiness I had.

I, Eddie Melton, being of sound mind and body, will to Slone my old raincoat, to Topps his Commission, to Derry the crusty socks I wore all year, and I leave Carlisle to Carlisle.

I, Gary Miller will to Danny and Kevin the ability to drink anytime Kevin makes a run (quite often), and Dear ole Carlisle, To Roy and Jimi 1,000 acres to grow potatoes; To Joe, Glenn, Jorge and Bobby the rat race for Ltc., and to all Juniors the ability to get the Senior rings.

I, Mike Mitchum will to Jimmy Phillips two more years at Carlisle and my ability to beat on first yearmen and make them smile like Jane; to Huddles Caughman the ability to be president of Bell Telephone; to McCutchen the ability to pass biology, and to William Davis, the name "Jane."

I, Roy Dean Mobley will to Crandall my Cpl. Guidon in Co. D, and to Stancil the ability to grow up.

I, Daniel Bernard Muckenfuss do hereby bequeath my wine bag to David Vealey (less Wine), to Dyral Beaver my tennis shoes (not really mine, I borrowed them), to Bobie Yates my rug and lamps, to Jimi Sineath luck with Kim, and finally, to the administration, my most humble regards.

I, Robert Newsome, being of sound mind and body, leave to Hanna one (1) used sax. reed, to Yarborough two more years of Carlisle, to Egan my class colors, and to Winters the ability to play the saxophone.

I, Reeves Petroff, being of reasonable mind and questionable body do bequeath all the following appurtenances to the individuals stated below: to my roommate Mooch Anderson, I leave the ability to get up when the alarm clock goes off, the ability to beat Meacham in wrestling without my help, a personalized machete, a letter from Oklahoma and a foglight, to Egan I leave a senior year at Carlisle and a giant peace sign, to Denny Griffin I leave Ken Okashita, a starched gi, and foam rubber bricks, to a person who will remain unanimous the continued ability to drive my VW bus, and lastly to Carlisle I leave a new senior class and the good reputation which it has.

I, Terry Lee Rose hereby will to Jack Griffin a muzzell, to Eddie Mattison some rug cleaner, to go with Ussery's rug, and to Fred Parsons my shade lamps to go with Ussery's room next year.

I, Francis Simmons, being of sound mind and body (I think), will to Heos one slightly used pole lamp, to Deery two more years at Carlisle, to Topps my supply Sgt., to Doss two feet of my height, to Davis, D. D., another year at Carlisle and another PFC, and to the underclassmen I leave Carlisle.

I, Thurman Still will to David Marshall another year of Carlisle, and to Mike Crandill a PFC his senior year.

I, Arthur Tisdale, will to Jimmy Phillips my Captain his Senior year, to Ernie Caughman my ability to box, to all juniors another year at Carlisle, and to all the other underclassmen, a hard time.

I, Jacque Ussery, will to Fred Parsons my dirty socks box and my room next year, to Mattison a new rug for his head, to Grady and Williams a rubber dolly, and to Jack Griffin a tube of polygrip.

I, Stan Vaughan, being of almost sound mind and body, do hereby will to Van Hibberts my ability to watch T.V. after taps without getting caught, and my senior class colors, to Col Sturgeon a later model dictionary, to Capt. Kelly the ability to checkmate someone, to the class of "73" I leave Carlisle, and to Carlisle I leave.