

IN MEMORIAM

COLONEL KARL STOLLER

The faculty and cadet corps were deeply grieved by the passing away last fall of Colonel Karl Stoller.

Col. Stoller frequently related to his friends that of all the interesting things he had done in his long career, his work with the young boys at Carlisle Military School had been the most rewarding. It is our hope that his memory will long be cherished.