

EMBARASSING MOMENTS

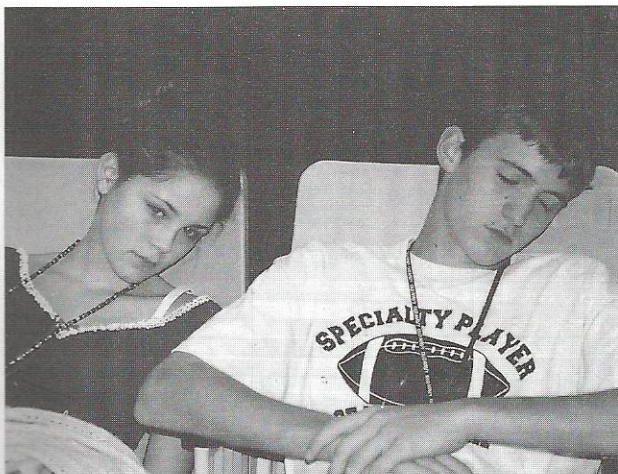

"My most embarrassing moment was when I fell down the stairs right after the bell rang and everyone saw me and laughed."

- Maurice Bowman, 11th

"My most embarrassing moment was when I was walking down the hall and I called someone else's name and they looked at me like I was crazy."

- Gena Fishbourne, 10th

No rush! Students socialize as they walk down the hall everyday. Senior Gabriel Pompermayer and sophomore Taylor Maxey take the time to shake hands and talk between classes. "I'm never in a hurry when I change classes because I like to stop and talk to my friends," Taylor said.

A trip to dreamland. Taking a break from underclassmen pictures juniors Lucius Culpepper and Kara Fox decide to try to take a quick nap. "Helping out with pictures was a lot of fun but hard work, I didn't think anyone would mind if I took a quick nap," Kara said.

"Good judgement comes from bad experiences, and a lot of that comes from bad judgement."
