

"I went all out for Spirit Week this year. I had so much fun. My favorite day was Opposite Day. I dressed up like a guy and wore my clothes backwards."

-Jasmine Fair, 7th

"I love dressing up for Spirit Week because I enjoy the relaxing environment and the carefreeness of the school. I also like planning what to do with all my friends."

-Karmyn Bowen, 7th

"Since this year was my last year in high school, I wanted to go all out and make this homecoming memorable for me. Opposite Day was by far the best day though."

-Shamell Johnson, 7th

"I wanted to dress up for Spirit Week because it is the beginning of a new school year and I wanted to make a big impression."

-Adam Preston, 7th

Dude Looks Like a Lady. Senior John Williams struts his stuff through the halls on Tuesday, Opposite Day dressed in full "drag" attire. On Opposite Day boys dressed as girls and girls dressed as guys.

Calling All Cats. Each year groups of seniors get together and plan a way to set themselves apart from the rest of the school on School Spirit Day. This group of girls had shirts made, painted jeans and made crowns to celebrate seniority.
