

Homecoming

Cougars Do It Right!

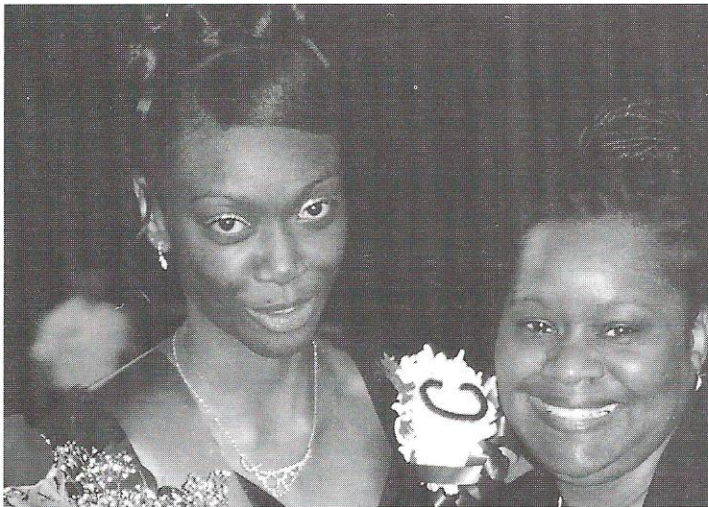

Fans began to fill the stadium as a new tradition began for our school. The NJROTC stood proudly at attention as the chorus sang loud to the tune of the "National Anthem." The 5,000 fans waited and watched the commotion at the fifty-yard line. As the intense moment approached, the crowd became silent as the names were called, "Miss Freshman, Brittany Mayes", "Miss Sophomore, Melody Sampson", and "Miss Junior, Porsha Doyle." "There was stiff competition, so I was surprised when they named me, "Miss Senior" Olivia Barnes said.

Finally the moment came for the highly anticipated announcement. Mr. Hayden called, "Miss Homecoming Queen for 2002-2003 is...Andrea Richardson." Even after the competing was over, the girls knew they had done their very bests.

A great ending for Spirit Week, homecoming gave everyone a chance to show their new colors. During the half time show, the band showed off to the crowd with their spectacular performance. The Cougar football team showed an amazing performance with their win over Fort Dorchester 14-9. "The players fed off the coaches rivalries and played a great game, which helped them come out on top," Coach Brain Reid said.

"Next year will be even better," Freshman Jason Harrison said.

-Nicole Bunton

Hug A Buddy! Porsha Doyle hugs Mrs. Mitchell after she won the title of Miss Junior. "After winning, I was just over-joyed as I hugged Mrs. Mitchell, but then I realized that I wasn't ready for the picture," Porsha said.

I can't believe it! Senior Olivia Barnes thanks Mr. Pence as he hands her her rose during the Homecoming Court. Olivia won the title of Miss Senior.

