

What's up with that? Senior Sagar Madiwala poses for a quick picture. Sagar did not believe in many superstitions, however.

No such things as superstitions! "Superstitions are nothing but a waste of time," sophomore Daniel Thomas said. Daniel was never a strong believer in superstitions.

Superstitions?! Yea right! Not everyone believes in superstitions, like sophomore Jarrett Farmer. "I don't believe in superstitions because they never happen."

Some do and some don't. "There are several superstitions that I believe in, but not very many," Librarian C. Gantt said.

Too many thoughts! "I don't think about big events before they happen. It makes me think that something bad will happen with the event," Art teacher Mrs. Zielke said.
