

Read all about it. Sitting in the library, freshman Makale Aiken immerses himself in the newspaper. It was a common site to see students come into the library to read in peace and quiet. Many used this as an opportunity to get ahead in their daily studies.

No habla ingles. Teaching English as a second language, Mrs. Torres takes time during her planning period to assist a student in need. Mrs. Torres, along with many other teachers at the school, put in extra time with students in order to create an atmosphere of enhanced education.

