

FUNDRAISING FUN

Fundraising, the one word no chorus or FBLA student enjoyed or even wanted to hear. These organizations conducted fundraisers to make money for their organizations.

The race to raise money to fund different programs is on!

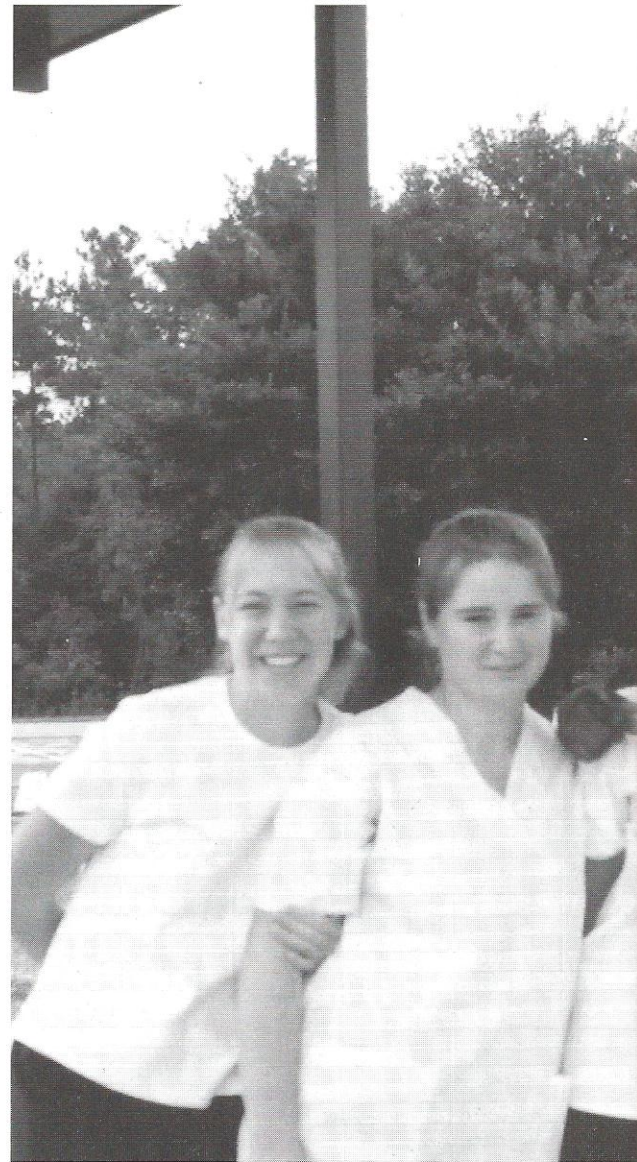

"Selling Cougar cards is not an easy task, no one wants to buy from you," sophomore Latoya Deal said. The chorus funds from selling these Cougar Cards went towards paying for their uniforms and paying for the rent on Hampton Street Auditorium, where they held their Christmas Concert.

The Vocational School's FBLA sold doughnuts in order to raise money. "Mmmmmmm...doughnuts," sophomore Meagan Chaplin said. The FBLA used the money to fund their class projects and several other events. The students of this organization felt their fundraisers really helped them to pay for additional tools and features.

-Nicole Bunton

Hitting the High Notes. These chorus members sing for Mrs. Drawdy at an outdoor practice. The chorus conducted the fundraiser of selling Cougar cards in order to raise money for their uniforms, which were worn in the concert.

Who purchases the most stuff?

- 5. Teenagers
- 4. Parents
- 3. Friends
- 2. Neighbors
- 1. Teachers