

Finding the latest. Senior Marcus Shiffer looks through the magazines in the library to find the latest information on his favorite topics. Magazines can be a hard decision to make when it comes to finding out information.

Stepping up to the challenge. It is always a challenge to talk to parents of a student. Mr. Barnhill is talking to a teenagers' parents at "Parent's Night". Administration isn't always the best job, but someone has got to do it.

WHAT WAS THE TOUGHEST RESEARCH FIELD YOU HAVE BEEN IN AND WHY?

"Science is the toughest because it has to do with a lot of chemicals mixing."

"Math because it has too many numebrs at the same time." Junior Darrel Wilson

"English because if you have to use the right speech and everything has to be correct." Sophomore Katie Carter

"English because it has too many book reports." Brittney Risher

"Everything because it is too confusing." Sophomore Craig Martineau

Surfing the Net. Sitting at a computer and looking bored, Rachel Sparks surfs the net to find the information she wants. The internet maybe the best source for information. It is, however, not alway the most accurate.
