

Presenting chemistry. Coach Loper gives his scientific presentation while he teaches to his fourth period class. He gave them information for their test the following day.

Practice makes perfect. Freshman Jessica Wheeler presents an original piece in Mrs. Gantt's class. "Presentations are interesting in an analysis of literature," Mrs. Gantt said.

Standing with Style. Senior Tanisha Fryar gives her presentation in order to get a better grade. She was able to catch the attention of her classmates.

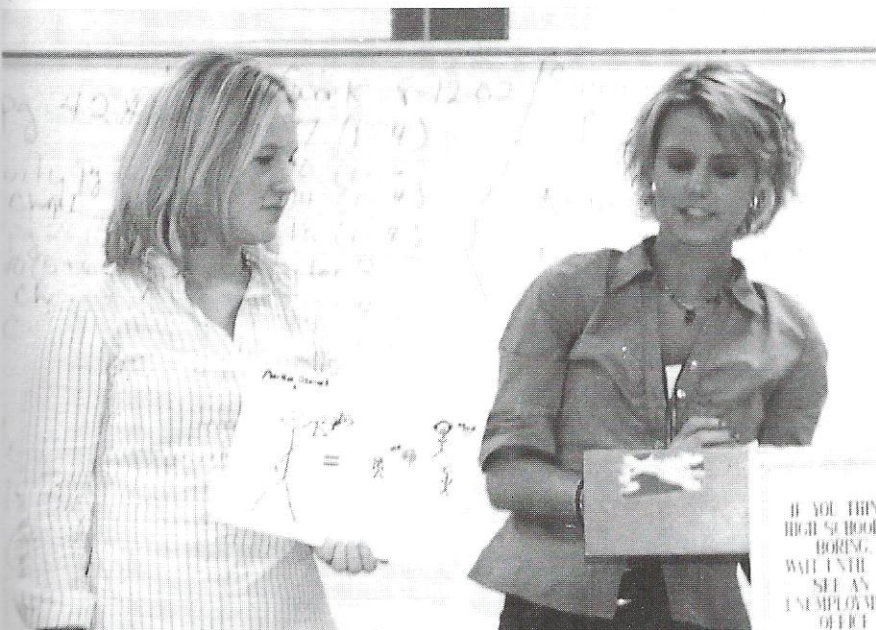

What personality trait do you have that makes you a good presenter?

Captain of the NJROTC competition drill team Brittany Wiggins listed her top five prsonality traits.

1. FUNNY
2. OUTGOING
3. BEING REAL
4. TALKING A LOT
5. BRAVE

Ready, Cut, Sew. Mrs. Singleton teaches her lesson while sewing a piece of fabric and showing it to the class. This taught her students how to properly sew.

Standing ovations Seniors Jamie Utsey and Lindsey Ackerman give a fantastic presentation during their class. They recieved standing ovations.