

Proving Our Power

1st Year of the Cougar Comes to a Close

The anticipation of a new team rippled through the stadium. "After our first victory against Wando, it seemed that nothing had changed but the faces," senior Will Chaplin said.

When the long and tiring practices began, the football members had time to get to know one another. "The team is wonderful, it is like we automatically clicked as one," junior James Owens said.

"The greatest feeling in the world comes from winning, or doing your best," senior Will Germroth said. Completing a season with 8 wins, the team deserves a pat on the back.

The favorite thing about the revived team had to be the uniforms. "I was really excited about our new uniforms, because we had the chance to pick them out and have them initialized," sophomore Rasheen Pinkney said.

The players had to have a total of 28 workouts over the summer to receive their name on the back of their jersey.

The Cougar season was finished with an eight and three record. CCHS left an impression on all of their competitors, and will continue into the playoffs.

I got it. As senior Charlie Brown dashes for a touchdown, he makes Goose Creek eat his dust. Charlie made 10 touchdowns this year.

We Ready. The screams and shouts fill the stadium as Eric Jordan, number 25, makes his way down the field. Eric made the touchdown, adding six points on the scoreboard.

Busted Stuff. The Cougars rip through the banner onto the center of the field before the Homecoming game. Running to the center of the field became a Cougar Tradition.

Scorin Stripes. The crowd roars as junior James Owens, number 77, lays out a block for his Cougar offense.
