

"I love cheering and everything that comes with it, I wouldn't change it for anything."

-Nicole Bunton, 10th

"One good thing about cheering is the fun times you have with your friends on the squad."

-Toni Bloodworth, 11th

Smile. The varsity cheerleaders pose for a group shot at the away game in Beaufort. The girls took this quick picture during half time.

Ouch. Leaning over, junior Dominique Edwards scratches a bite. At many of the away games, the girls fought to keep the mosquitos and gnats away while cheering.
