

Accompanied by sophomore Matthew Boles, Miss Junior Ambra Magwood appreciately thanks those who voted for her. "It was a privilege to be the one to escort Miss Junior around the field," Matthew said.

Anxiously waiting for the big rivalry to begin, the cheerleaders prepared for the football players to tear the banner. The banner showed support and spirit for the team.

Miss Sophomore Marissa Bright smiles happily as she walks down the field. Sophomore Quinton Ross walked by her side to support her. "I was very shocked because I seriously thought I was going to lose," Marissa said.

Coming Home for One Last Game

Everyone anxiously awaits for this one special Friday night. The Homecoming game proved to be a very exciting night for the football players and homecoming court. Patiently waiting, the homecoming court stood in front of the huge crowd hoping to hear their names declaring that they had won. The Homecoming court walked nervously on the field with their escorts at their sides. The crowd ceased as the announcer came over the intercom and announced this years winners. The winners were Miss Senior: Tene Williams, Miss Junior: Ambra Magwood, Miss Sophomore: Marissa Bright, Miss Freshmen: JaQuawana C. Terry. And the winner for Homecoming Queen...Miss Satin Palonco. Satin smiled and walked over to Mr. Bullock to receive her crown as the crowd went wild.
