

Seniors Tonique Fraizer and Fairen Singleton wait for their other friends to come by. "My best friend Fairen and I were checking out who's hot and who's not," Tonique said.

Sophomore John Register sits quietly trying to get all his work done. "Working to the best of ability is what all students should do," John said.

Seniors Tene Williams, Melody Roberts, and Shamisa Roberts gather together for the first time since school started back. "Shameia, Tene and I have been friends for a while. We always walk together," Melody said.

New Year Premier

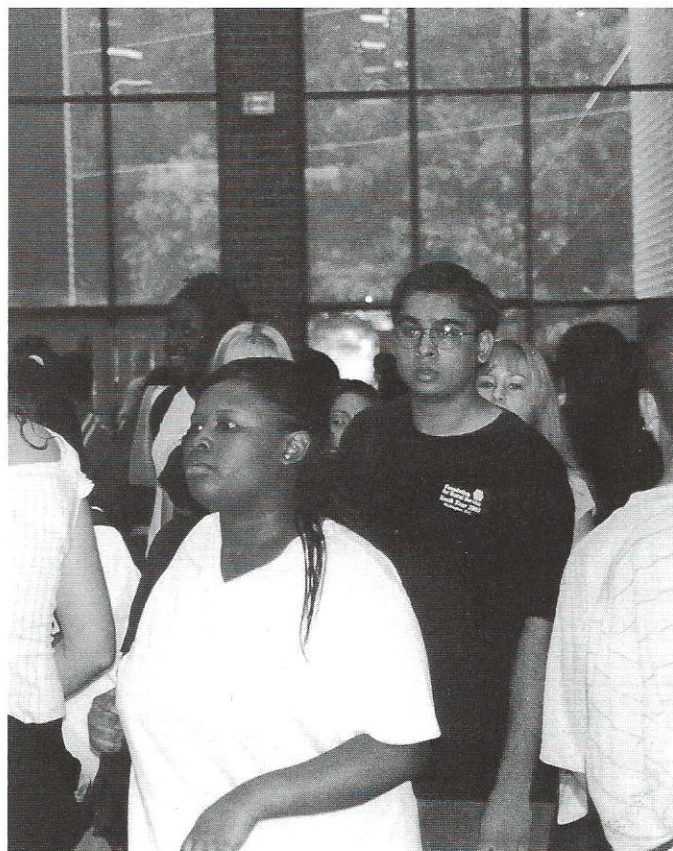

The Time Is Here, The Time Is Now

With students rockin' the latest styles, laughter and anxiety filled the halls. "I was excited about the first day of school because I got tired of sitting around at home wasting time," junior Crystal Goodwin said.

Many differences changed our educational system. For instance, the warning bell no longer existed. "I don't like the fact that we don't have a warning bell," senior Sara Fink said. It took some time to adjust to the new system, but with effort from students and teachers things began to run more smoothly. "Now we don't have to worry about people knocking each other down to get to class." Junior Vianeka Williams said.

-Sarah Rivers

Cruising through the afternoon commons area rush, senior Dhruv Desai makes his way to Coach Hayes' classroom. "It is kind of hard getting to class on time because of the crowd in the common's area," he said.