A thrill swept through the air as summer vacation approached. Year after year students anticipated where they would go before summer arrived. A few students followed through with their vacation plans while other's vacations remained dreams.

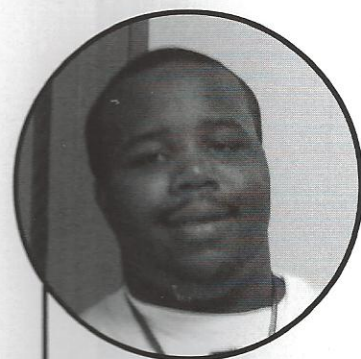

"I've always wanted to go to Cancun, Mexico. I heard that there are a lot of nice looking girls there," senior Kyle Thomas said.

Some students vacationed for fun, relaxation, and even education. Many students enjoyed themselves over the summer. "I went to Gettysburg Pennsylvania, and we looked at the soldiers' graves. We also went to a bunch of museums," sophomore Anastasia Montjoy said.

Most students couldn't wait for summer to arrive. Some even counted down the days. "I love the summer; I love going to the sandy beaches, the rustling water and being in the cool breeze with the hot sun on my skin. I can never wait for summer to come," junior Katie Carter said.
