

Many students dress according to how they feel and the people they hang out with. "I dress by the mood I'm in," sophomore Devesus Fishburne.

Senior Kyesha Gaffney converses with junior Ashely Fennell about her sense of style. "Ashely complimented me about my blue jean bodysuit," Kyesha said.

Some people dress to impress, but others dress for comfort. "I dress by my attitude," sophomore Coleen Fields said.

Some students felt like waking up early and it payed off when it came to their looks. "When I get up early and have enough time to get ready, I seem to look my best," sophomore Victoria Harrison said.

Some students made sure they had their own style. "Jeans, duck boots, and most likely a collared shirt is what makes me...me," sophomore Jannie Polk said.