

Different Strokes for Different Folks

A World of Variety

Sophomore, Kimberly Bulluck, concentrates as she finishes some work in Mrs. Fischers Spanish I class. "I like doing the work, because I like the teacher," Kimberly said.

Junior, Whitney Anderson, reads aloud in her Spanish book as everyone reads along. "Most juniors have to take two years of foreign language to graduate, but my true goal is to be a model," Whitney said.

The anticipation of going to Europe made everyone interested nervous with excitement. "It's an opportunity of a lifetime, and I can't wait to experience it," senior Meagan Smith said.

Before going everyone talked about the places they would like to visit. "I'm really looking forward to seeing the Eiffel Tower," senior Kristen Tutas said.

This trip represented a big step in many of the students lives, something they would cherish and remember forever. The itinerary, filled with exciting new adventures that the students never experienced before. Some events included visiting the Eiffel Tower, the Sistine Chapel, museums, and some French restaurants, where French cuisine would be enjoyed by all. "I am extremely excited about tasting the food straight from the kitchens of France," sophomore Lucas Zaker said.

Each day the trip planners dreamed of their Adventure to Europe. They waited for the year to end and the trip to commence.

-Erin Stewart

While writing a sentence on the board during Mr. Drake's fourth period class, senior Shatima Stephens does her best to learn Spanish.

