

Mrs. Courtney, head of the Foreign Language department, looks forward to advising the CCHS trip to Europe this coming summer. "I love Europe during any season," she said.

Mrs. Harris, while reading aloud to her Spanish class, expresses the enjoyment she has while studying the language. "I really like my class, because they keep me full of joy every day," she said.

While writing on the board, Mrs. Fischer laughs at a student's joke. Mrs. Fischer teaches Spanish I. "Sometimes when my students mispronounce or say something wrong, it just tickles me, then I correct them," Mrs. Fischer said.

Seniors Megan Smith, Kristin Tutas, and Kaylan Salisbury relax while talking about their trip to Europe. The excitement of the trip glowed from the faces. "I look forward to spending this great experience with my friends," Kaylan said.

Mr. Drake looks up as he leads his class in their Spanish poem that they have to memorize. Mr. Drake teaches both French and Spanish. "I enjoy teaching both languages," he said.